For the fourth year, the Department of Architecture of the University of Ferrara in coordination with the XXVII edition of "Restoration - International Exhibition of Cultural and Environmental Heritage", to be held in Ferrara on 8-10 June, proposes the appointment of "Days of Restoration and Cultural Heritage". The event, which in the first edition saw the prestigious headquarters of Palazzo Tassoni Estense open to three days of discussion and debate in 2020 and 2021 because of the pandemic situation COVID-19 proposes a series of events on-lines that consolidate the vocation of innovation and research on cultural heritage. This year the IV edition of the "Days of Restoration and Cultural Heritage" will see a series of webinars and conferences dedicated to different topics.
